OLD BUSINESS

6. Trees and Flowers
 - Flowers in planters are healthy and blooming nicely.
 - The Crabapple trees (our two and Joel's tree) have hanging worms (Leaf Rollers) again this year. The worms will need to be sprayed in early spring when they emerge from the ground.
 - The Japanese Lilac trees (in front of Longhorn) are dying. Lori will call the arborist to look at all the trees.
 - Weeded, pruned and deadheaded flowers in the Suverkrubbe Memorial area.
 - Weeds are a problem in the bed by the north Sycamore – they continue to be sprayed but area needs to be mulched.
7. Farmers Market started July 11, 2019.
 - Royce Welchert came with his produce; also vendors selling Honey and BBQ.
 - Put note about Farmer's Market on the August 1st water bill.
 - Put in the What's Up? column of the newspaper.
8. Old Fashioned Community Open House on July 13, 2019.
 - Event was a success with many groups of people participating on Saturday and Sunday.
 - Several citizens asked about doing it again with different locations.
 - The event was a partnership of the Washington County Historical Association and the City of Fort Calhoun.
